> And Representative Kawewehi, as the Lone Wolf and self-delegated representative for the visitors, replied to the reception by joining in the noise with blood-curdling yells and howls. It was an event the lawmakers will not soon forget.

The dogs, immured for a period of six months, in compliance with the federal laws, went almost mad with joy at the prospect of so much human companionship and expressed their delight accordingly.

All are animals of the best breeds and to the animal lovers among the legislators the visit was a most pleas ant surprise. They were shown through the compound by Keeper Thomas Pattison, who receive hearty encouragement in his plea for an enlargement of quarters.
